

JENNIFER BREN, PA-C

Board-Certified Physician Assistant

Jennifer is a board-certified Physician Assistant. She started with DuPage Medical Group in 2014 after graduating with Master of Medical Science in Physician Assistant Studies from Midwestern University in Downers Grove, Illinois.

Jennifer evaluates and treats patients with various spine and chronic pain conditions including: spinal stenosis, herniated discs, compression fractures, degenerative disc disease, facet arthropathy, scoliosis, spondylolisthesis, spondylosis, SI dysfunction, cancer pain, rheumatoid arthritis, osteoarthritis and complex regional pain syndrome.

She values communication and listens to each patient's individual concerns, needs and goals to develop the most appropriate treatment plan and involve every patient in this process. Her aim is to empower every patient to take an active role in their own care to obtain an improved quality of life. She is a member of the American Academy of Physician Assistants and Illinois Academy of Physician Assistants. In her free time, Jennifer enjoys spending time with family and friends, traveling, and running with her two German shepherd dogs.
